

Communication

Internal communications is a top priority of Urban&Civic. We recognise the important of ensuring all our employee have access to information and that the flow and cascade of communications reinforces our values.

The business has an Internal Communications Strategy and a number of channels and workstreams designed specifically to reach and engage our employees in Company information.

